Licence agreement

Certain terms used herein are defined below:

This licence agreement (the 'Agreement') means these terms and conditions including any schedules, addenda, variations or amendments agreed in writing by the parties.

This Agreement refers to the Aculab software package (the 'Software'), including such as but not limited to the Aculab installation tool, Aculab configuration tool, digital media processing software, firmware, signalling protocols and documentation or textual material (such Software and documentation or textual material shall collectively be described herein as the 'Material') originated by and supplied by Aculab plc (Aculab), the licensor of the Material, via Aculab's website, physical media, or by any other means.

'Licensee' means the individual downloading, installing or otherwise seeking to make use of any part of the Material and his/her employer.

'End User' is a party that is provided with any hardware and software product derived from or comprising in any way either in whole or in part any of the Material (the 'Product') by the Licensee for its own use and not for the purpose of further distribution, resale or furnishing of the Product to a third party.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

THE LICENSEE SHOULD CAREFULLY READ AND ACKNOWLEDGE THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT BEFORE DOWNLOADING, COPYING, INSTALLING OR USING THE MATERIAL.

THE LICENSEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT HAS READ AND UNDERSTOOD THIS AGREEMENT AND THAT BY DOWNLOADING OR USING THE MATERIAL AND/OR DOWNLOADING, INSTALLING OR USING THE SOFTWARE ACCOMPANYING THIS AGREEMENT AGREES TO BE BOUND BY ITS TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

IF THE LICENSEE IS ATTEMPTING TO INSTALL THE MATERIAL, THE LICENSEE SHALL INDICATE ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT BY SELECTING THE 'I AGREE' OPTION BUTTON IN THE DIALOGUE BOX. IF THE LICENSEE IS ATTEMPTING TO INSTALL THE MATERIAL AND DOES NOT ACCEPT THIS AGREEMENT, THE LICENSEE SHALL SELECT THE 'CANCEL' OPTION BUTTON IN THE DIALOGUE BOX. THE LATTER ACTION WILL ABORT THE INSTALLATION.

ACULAB IS UNWILLING TO LICENSE THE MATERIAL TO THE LICENSEE IF THE LICENSEE DOES NOT AGREE TO THIS AGREEMENT.

1. License grant. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Aculab grants to the Licensee a non-exclusive, non-assignable, non-transferable copyright licence to use the Material in the form provided and to copy the Material and distribute the Material with the Licensee's Product.

Certain software elements of the Material are paid-for licensed software, which operate under software licensing mechanisms that limit the number of simultaneous channels ('Channels') or apply other measures ('Measures') to limit applicable functionality at run time. Other software elements, common to both hardware and software-based products, are provided free of any separate or additional charge to the user and free of any Channel count or Measures restrictions by means of the licensing mechanisms. It is Aculab's intention that users of common software in such circumstances shall limit the use of that common software to be the same maximum number of Channels or applicably quantifiable Measures as are enabled by the licensing mechanisms operating on the applicable paid-for licensed software with which the common software is being used. For the avoidance of doubt, such common software includes Aculab's SIP Service.

In the case of paid-for licensed software, Licensee acknowledges that such software is licensed on a per unique physical machine basis, using the licensing mechanisms or such Measures as may be applied by Aculab from time to time. Should Licensee choose to install a copy of the paid-for licensed software on a virtual machine or machines, Licensee further acknowledges that it shall pay an agreed fee to Aculab, where such fee shall be, in the case of each separate virtual machine instance where the software is installed, no greater than the fee paid by Licensee for the number of Channels originally licensed. Licensee further acknowledges that it shall have the obligation to advise Aculab of such virtual machine usage and agree such fees in advance, whereupon Aculab shall invoice Licensee for the appropriate number or quantity of licenses.

2. Distribution terms and restrictions. Any distribution of the Material is subject to Clause 1 above and this Clause 2 whereby: (i) the Licensee shall be solely responsible to the Licensee's direct or indirect customers, distributors, sub-distributors and End Users for any warranty, update or support obligations or other liability which may arise from distribution of the Product hereunder; (ii) the Licensee shall not make any statement that the Licensee's Product is certified, or that its performance is guaranteed in any way, by Aculab; (iii) the Licensee shall not use Aculab's name or trademarks to market the Licensee's Product without written permission from Aculab; (iv) the Licensee shall not delete, amend or otherwise alter Aculab's copyright and other proprietary notices as they appear in the Material; (v) the Licensee shall replace Aculab's name with the Licensee's own in any documentation that the Licensee produces for End Users of the Licensee's Product that is derived from the Material, and the Licensee includes the Licensee's copyright and trademark notice along with Aculab's copyright and trademark notice in such documentation; and (vi) the Licensee shall indemnify, hold harmless, and defend Aculab (including all of its principles, officers, employees, directors, subsidiaries, representatives, affiliates and agents) and Aculab's suppliers from and against any claims or lawsuits, including attorney's fees and expenses, that arise or result from distribution of the Product pursuant to this Agreement or from breach of this or any other condition of this Agreement.

3. Ownership. Title to and intellectual property rights in all copies of the Material in any form shall remain with Aculab and/or its suppliers and in no circumstances shall any title or copyright in the Material be conferred. The Material is copyrighted and protected by the laws of the United Kingdom and other countries, and international treaty provisions. The Licensee may not remove any copyright notices from the Material. This Agreement does not include any licence to any updates or upgrades (including without limitation bug fixes, new releases, or added functionality or capabilities) which Aculab may make to the Software. Aculab is not obligated to support, update or upgrade the Software. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, Aculab grants no express or implied right or licence under Aculab's patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets or other intellectual property rights.

4. Limitation on reverse engineering. The Licensee shall not, nor shall the Licensee permit any third party to, including without limitation, translate, de-compile, reverse compile, disassemble, reverse assemble, or reverse engineer the Software.

5. Export control. The Licensee acknowledges that the Material provided under this Agreement is subject to United Kingdom export laws and regulations and that any use or distribution of the Material must be authorised under those regulations. The Licensee agrees that it will not use or distribute the Material even if incorporated into the Products except in compliance with United Kingdom export regulations.

6. Confidentiality. The Material includes confidential information of Aculab. The Licensee may not reveal or disclose the Material in any form, or display it publicly, or use it or any information relating to it except for the purposes of this Agreement.

7. Termination. Without prejudice to any other rights, Aculab may terminate this Agreement and all rights hereunder if the Licensee fails to comply with the terms and conditions herein. In such an event, the Licensee shall destroy all copies of the Material held in part or in full and in any form and certify in writing to Aculab that all such copies have been destroyed and that all use of the Material has been discontinued.

8. Third party software. Aculab shall defend and indemnify the Licensee against any and all claims brought against the Licensee and shall hold the Licensee harmless from all corresponding damages, liabilities, settlements, costs and expenses, including any reasonable legal fees, arising out of any claim that the Aculab software infringes any third party patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or other intellectual property right. The Licensee shall give Aculab prompt notice of and authority to defend or settle, any such claim and shall give Aculab reasonable information and assistance in its defence.

Aculab shall have no liability to the Licensee under this Clause 8 in the event of infringement of any third party patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or any other intellectual property right that arises from: (i) components of the Licensee's Product not directly and exclusively derived from the Material; (ii) compliance with the Licensee's designs, specifications or written instructions; (iii) modification by the Licensee of the Software; or (iv) the combination of the Licensee's Product with Software not authorised or provided by Aculab or otherwise approved by Aculab in the Material.

The Licensee shall defend and indemnify Aculab against any and all claims brought against Aculab, and shall hold Aculab harmless from all corresponding damages, liabilities, settlements, costs, and expenses, including reasonable legal fees, arising out of any claim arising with respect to any of the Licensee products, with the sole exception of those matters for which Aculab bears responsibility under this Clause 8. Aculab shall give the Licensee prompt notice of and authority to defend or settle, any such claim and shall give the Licensee reasonable information and assistance.

9. Disclaimer of warranties. The Licensee understands and acknowledges that the Material is provided on an 'as-is' basis, without warranty of any kind. Aculab does not warrant that the functions contained in the Material will meet the Licensee's or the End User's requirements or will run error-free or uninterrupted, that defects will be corrected or that the Material or the media that enabled the Licensee or the End User to receive it is free of viruses or other harmful components. To the fullest extent permissible pursuant to applicable law, Aculab disclaims all warranties, express or implied, including, without limitation, warranties or implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose or non-infringement. Aculab does not warrant or make any representations or conditions regarding the use or the results of the use of the Material in terms of its validity, completeness, accuracy, reliability, or otherwise. Aculab assumes no risk of any and all damage or loss from use or inability to use the Material. The entire risk of the quality and performance of the Material and its use is with the Licensee or the End User. This disclaimer of warranty constitutes an essential part of this Agreement.

10. Exclusive remedies and the limitations of liabilities. In no event including but not limited to negligence shall Aculab or its principles, officers, employees, directors, subsidiaries, representatives, affiliates and agents be liable to the Licensee, the End User or any other third party, for any lost profits, lost data, loss of use or costs of procurement of substitute goods or services, or for any direct, indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages arising out of or in connection with the use or the inability to use or performance of the Material or arising out of this Agreement, whether under any cause of action in contract tort or any other theory of liability, and irrespective of whether Aculab or its principles, officers, employees, directors, subsidiaries, representatives, affiliates and agents have advance notice of the possibility of such damages. These limitations shall apply notwithstanding the failure of the essential purpose of any limited remedy. In any case, Aculab's and its principles', officers', employees', directors', subsidiaries', representatives', affiliates' and agents' entire liability under any provision of this Agreement shall not exceed the amounts of the fees that the Licensee or the End User paid for the Material (if any).

In no event does Aculab authorize the Licensee or the End User to use the Software in applications or systems where the Software's failure to perform can reasonably be expected to result in a significant personal physical injury, or in loss of life. Any such use by the Licensee or the End User is entirely at the Licensee's or the End User's own risk. Should the Licensee or the Licensee's direct or indirect customers use the Software for any such unintended or unauthorized use, the Licensee shall indemnify and hold Aculab and its principles, officers, employees, directors, subsidiaries, representatives, affiliates and agents harmless against all claims, costs, damages, and expenses, and attorney fees and expenses arising out of, directly or indirectly, any claim of product liability, personal injury or death associated with such unintended or unauthorized use, even if such claim alleges that Aculab was negligent regarding the design or manufacture of any part of the Material.

11. Applicable laws. This Agreement shall be governed, construed and take effect in all respects in accordance with the laws of England and the Licensee hereby consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

12. Waiver. All rights and remedies, whether conferred hereunder or by any other instrument or law, will be cumulative and may be exercised singularly or concurrently. Failure by either party to enforce any term will not be deemed a waiver of future enforcement of that or any other term.

13. Severability. The terms and conditions stated herein are declared to be severable. Should any term(s) or condition(s) of this Agreement be held to be invalid or unenforceable the validity, construction and enforceability of the remaining terms and conditions of this Agreement shall not be affected.

14. Assignment. The Licensee may not assign any rights, duties or obligations hereunder without the prior written approval of Aculab and any attempt to assign any rights, duties or obligations hereunder without Aculab's written consent will be void.

15. Aculab product information. Aculab reserves the right to contact the Licensee using normally accepted business methods of communication in order to provide the Licensee with further information on Aculab's entire range of products. The Licensee shall be entitled to request the cessation of all such communication by stating its requirement to Aculab at any time after the first such contact is made.

16. Entire agreement. These terms and conditions constitute the entire agreement between Aculab and the Licensee with respect to the subject matter hereof. These terms and conditions will prevail notwithstanding any prior, conflicting or additional terms and conditions that may appear on any other purchase orders, agreements and arrangements between Aculab and the Licensee. Deviations from these terms and conditions are not valid unless agreed to in writing by an authorized representative of Aculab.
